

Bluff View Church, Inc.
A Wisconsin Non-Profit Non-Stock Corporation

BYLAWS 6-2025

PREAMBLE

For the purpose of establishing and maintaining a place for the worship of Almighty God, our Heavenly Father; to provide for Christian fellowship for those who have made a profession of faith in and are following Jesus Christ; to assume our share of responsibility for evangelism and the privilege of propagating the gospel of Jesus Christ by all available means, both at home and in foreign lands; to train and equip fully developed disciples and followers of Jesus Christ, and to serve our community and minister with the love and compassion of Jesus Christ; we, whose names appear on the membership roster under the below date, do hereby recognize ourselves as a local, General Council affiliated church as defined in the corresponding The General Council of the Assemblies of God (USA) Constitution and Bylaws and Bylaws of the Wisconsin and Northern Michigan district/network in Waupaca, Wisconsin, and declare that we hereby adopt the following articles as bylaws of church order and submit ourselves to be governed by them.

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this corporation, (hereinafter referred to as “church,” “this church,” or “the church”), is Bluff View Church Inc. of the township of Arpin, county of Wood, of Wisconsin.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE, PREROGATIVES, and Exempt Activities Limitation

The church is a non-profit corporation and shall be operated exclusively for educational and charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code.

Moreover, the church further declares its purpose to:

1. Encourage and promote the evangelization of the world.
2. Establish and maintain the worship of God.
3. Provide a basis of fellowship among fellow believers.
4. Encourage and promote the spiritual growth and discipleship of believers.
5. Serve the needs of the local community as feasible in any biblically aligned manner and respond to human need with ministries of service and compassion.
6. Own, hold in trust, use, sell, convey, mortgage, lease, or otherwise acquire or dispose of such property (real or chattel) as may be needed for accomplishing the mission of the church.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Bylaws, no director, officer, employee, member, or representative of this church shall take any action or carry on any activity by or on behalf of the church not permitted to be taken or carried on by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code as it now exists or may be amended, or by any organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code and Regulations as it now exists or may be amended.

No part of the net earnings of the church shall inure to the benefit or be distributable to any director, officer, member, or other private person, except that the church shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws.

ARTICLE III. AFFILIATION AND RELATIONSHIP

This church is a Wisconsin non-profit non-stock corporation, recognized as tax exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code.

It recognizes that it is a mutually supporting member church of the Wisconsin and Northern Michigan district/network, with headquarters at Waupaca, Wisconsin, affiliated with The General Council of the Assemblies of God with national office at Springfield, Missouri, and agrees as a condition of affiliation to abide by the Constitution and Bylaws of each organization. This church further declares itself to be in full cooperative fellowship with all other churches that are affiliated with said district/network or the General Council and to share in the privileges and assume the responsibilities enjoined by this relationship.

In furtherance of the above relationship, this church will abide by the following:

1. Maintain an active voting membership of at least twenty (20) persons (unless granted an exception by the District/Network Presbytery as per General Presbytery policy).
2. Be able to sustain the requirement for an adequate number of spiritually qualified persons to fill the offices of the church as called for in The General Council of the Assemblies of God Constitution and Bylaws and/or applicable state nonprofit corporation laws.
3. Cooperate by every possible means in the extension of God's work and Kingdom throughout the world.
4. Support the missionary program agreed upon by the Wisconsin and Northern Michigan district/network and The General Council Assemblies of God World and U.S. Missions departments.
5. Participate in district/network and General Council sessions via duly chosen delegates.
6. Share in support of the district/network and the General Council.
7. Recognize that designated officials of the district/network shall have the right to be present at any Board of Directors or membership meeting of this church for whatever reason or purpose.

8. Invite the counsel of the district/network officers in the event of church difficulty or when changing pastors.
9. Recognize that partners/members are expected to resolve disputes with other partners/members or church leadership in a biblical manner, rather than in civil courts (1 Corinthians 6:1–11).
10. Recognize that any serious dispute between the pastor and the board shall require consultation with the Wisconsin and Northern Michigan district/network of the Assemblies of God executive leadership. They may offer counsel, mediation, and/or binding arbitration before a designated panel they shall appoint in lieu of seeking redress in the civil courts of this state or elsewhere.
11. Recognize that the Wisconsin and Northern Michigan district/network and/or the General Council shall have the right and authority to: (a) approve scriptural doctrine and polity; (b) disapprove unscriptural doctrine and polity, as stated in the General Council Constitution and Bylaws or District/Network Bylaws; and (c) withdraw its Certificate of Affiliation, if deemed necessary.

ARTICLE IV. PRINCIPLES FOR FELLOWSHIP

This church shall, as nearly as possible, represent the body of Christ as described in the New Testament, recognizing the principles inherent in that body as also inherent in this fellowship, particularly the principles of unity, fellowship, cooperation, and equality.

ARTICLE V. STATEMENT OF FUNDAMENTAL TRUTHS

This church accepts the Bible as our all-sufficient rule for faith and practice. This church accepts The General Council of the Assemblies of God Statement of Fundamental Truths. The full statement is available at www.ag.org. This statement is intended simply as a basis of fellowship among us (i.e., that we all speak the same thing, 1 Corinthians 1:10; Acts 2:42). The phraseology employed in this statement is not inspired nor contended for, but the truth set forth is held to be essential to a full-gospel ministry. No claim is made that it contains all biblical truth, only that it covers our need regarding basic biblical doctrines.

1. The Scriptures Inspired

The Scriptures, both the Old and New Testaments, are verbally inspired of God and are the revelation of God to man, the infallible, authoritative rule of faith and conduct (2 Timothy 3:15–17; 1 Thessalonians 2:13; 2 Peter 1:21).

2. The One True God

The one true God has revealed Himself as the eternally self-existent “I AM,” the Creator of heaven and earth and the Redeemer of mankind. He has further revealed Himself as embodying the principles of relationship and association as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Deuteronomy 6:4; Isaiah 43:10–11; Matthew 28:19; Luke 3:22).

3. The Adorable Godhead

a. Terms Defined

The terms trinity and persons, as related to the godhead, while not found in the Scriptures, are words in harmony with Scripture, whereby we may convey to others our immediate understanding of the doctrine of Christ respecting the Being of God, as distinguished from “gods many and lords many.” We therefore may speak with propriety of the Lord our God, who is One Lord, as a Trinity or as one Being of three persons, and still be absolutely scriptural (examples, Matthew 28:19; 2 Corinthians 13:14; John 14:16–17).

b. Distinction and Relationship in the Godhead

Christ taught a distinction of persons in the godhead which He expressed in specific terms of relationship, as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, but that this distinction and relationship, as to its mode is inscrutable and incomprehensible, because unexplained (Luke 1:35; 1 Corinthians 1:24; Matthew 11:25–27; 28:19; 2 Corinthians 13:14; 1 John 1:3–4).

c. Unity of the One Being of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit

Accordingly, therefore, there is that in the Father which constitutes Him the Father and not the Son; there is that in the Son which constitutes Him the Son and not the Father; and there is that in the Holy Spirit which constitutes Him the Holy Spirit and not either the Father or the Son. Wherefore, the Father is the Begetter; the Son is the Begotten; and the Holy Spirit is the One proceeding from the Father and the Son. Therefore, because these three persons in the godhead are in a state of unity, there is but one Lord God Almighty and His name one (John 1:18; 15:26; 17:11, 21; Zechariah 14:9).

d. Identity and Cooperation in the Godhead

The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit are never identical as to person; nor confused as to relation; nor divided in respect to the godhead; nor opposed as to cooperation. The Son is in the Father and the Father is in the Son as to relationship. The Son is with the Father and the Father is with the Son, as to fellowship. The Father is not from the Son, but the Son is from the Father, as to authority. The Holy Spirit is from the Father and the Son proceeding, as to nature, relationship, cooperation, and authority. Hence, no person in the godhead either exists or works separately or independently of the others (John 5:17–30, 32, 37; 8:17–18).

e. The Title, Lord Jesus Christ

The appellation Lord Jesus Christ is a proper name. It is never applied in the New Testament either to the Father or to the Holy Spirit. It therefore belongs exclusively to the Son of God (Romans 1:1–3, 7; 2 John 3).

f. The Lord Jesus Christ, God with Us

The Lord Jesus Christ, as to His divine and eternal nature, is the proper and only Begotten of the Father, but as to His human nature, He is the proper Son of Man. He is, therefore, acknowledged to be both God and man; who because He is God and man, is “Immanuel,” God with us (Matthew 1:23; 1 John 4:2, 10, 14; Revelation 1:13, 17).

g. The Title, Son of God

Since the name Immanuel embraces both God and man, in the one person, our Lord Jesus Christ, it follows that the title Son of God describes His proper deity, and the title Son of Man, His proper humanity. Therefore, the title Son of God belongs to the order of eternity, and the title Son of Man to the order of time (Matthew 1:21–23; 2 John 3; 1 John 3:8; Hebrews 7:3; 1:1–13).

h. Transgression of the Doctrine of Christ

Wherefore, it is a transgression of the doctrine of Christ to say that Jesus Christ derived the title Son of God solely from the fact of the Incarnation, or because of His relation to the economy of redemption. Therefore, to deny that the Father is a real and eternal Father, and that the Son is a real and eternal Son, is a denial of the distinction and relationship in the Being of God; a denial of the Father and the Son; and a displacement of the truth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh (2 John 9; John 1:1–2, 14, 18, 29, 49; 1 John 2:22–23; 4:1–5; Hebrews 12:2).

i. Exaltation of Jesus Christ as Lord

The Son of God, our Lord Jesus Christ, having by Himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high, angels and principalities and powers having been made subject unto Him. And having been made both Lord and Christ, He sent the Holy Spirit that we, in the name of Jesus, might bow our knees and confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father until the end, when the Son shall become subject to the Father that God may be all in all (Hebrews 1:3; 1 Peter 3:22; Acts 2:32–36; Romans 14:11; 1 Corinthians 15:24–28).

j. Equal Honor to the Father and to the Son

Wherefore, since the Father has delivered all judgment unto the Son, it is not only the express duty of all in heaven and on earth to bow the knee, but it is an unspeakable joy in the Holy Spirit to ascribe unto the Son all the attributes of deity, and to give Him all the honor and the glory contained in all the names and titles of the godhead except those which express relationship (see paragraphs b, c, and d), and thus honor the Son even as we honor the Father (John 5:22–23; 1 Peter 1:8; Revelation 5:6–14; Philippians 2:8–9; Revelation 7:9–10; 4:8–11).

4. The Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ

The Lord Jesus Christ is the eternal Son of God. The Scriptures declare:

- a. His virgin birth (Matthew 1:23; Luke 1:31, 35).
- b. His sinless life (Hebrews 7:26; 1 Peter 2:22).
- c. His miracles (Acts 2:22; 10:38).
- d. His substitutionary work on the cross (1 Corinthians 15:3; 2 Corinthians 5:21).
- e. His bodily resurrection from the dead (Matthew 28:6; Luke 24:39; 1 Corinthians 15:4).
- f. His exaltation to the right hand of God (Acts 1:9,11; 2:33; Philippians 2:9–11; Hebrews 1:3).

5. The Fall of Man

Man was created good and upright; for God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness." However, man by voluntary transgression fell and thereby incurred not only physical death but also spiritual death, which is separation from God (Genesis 1:26–27; 2:17; 3:6; Romans 5:12–19).

6. The Salvation of Man

Man's only hope of redemption is through the shed blood of Jesus Christ the Son of God.

a. Conditions to Salvation. Salvation is received through repentance toward God and faith toward the Lord Jesus Christ. By the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, being justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God according to the hope of eternal life (Luke 24:47; John 3:3; Romans 10:13–15; Ephesians 2:8; Titus 2:11; 3:5)

b. The Evidences of Salvation. The inward evidence of salvation is the direct witness of the Spirit (Romans 8:16). The outward evidence to all men is a life of righteousness and true holiness (Ephesians 4:24; Titus 2:12)

7. The Ordinances of the Church

a. Baptism in Water. The ordinance of baptism by immersion is commanded in the Scriptures. All who repent and believe on Christ as Savior and Lord are to be baptized. Thus, they declare to the world that they have died with Christ and that they also have been raised with Him to walk in newness of life (Matthew 28:19; Mark 16:16; Acts 10:47–48; Romans 6:4).

b. Holy Communion. The Lord's Supper, consisting of the elements—bread and the fruit of the vine—is the symbol expressing our sharing the divine nature of our Lord Jesus Christ (2 Peter 1:4); a memorial of His suffering and death (1 Corinthians 11:26); and a prophecy of His second coming (1 Corinthians 11:26); and is enjoined on all believers “till He come!

8. The Baptism in the Holy Spirit

All believers are entitled to and should ardently expect and earnestly seek the promise of the Father, the baptism in the Holy Spirit and fire, according to the command of our Lord Jesus Christ. This was the normal experience of all in the early Christian church. With it comes the endowment of power for life and service, the bestowment of the gifts and their uses in the work of the ministry (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:4, 8; 1 Corinthians 12:1–31). This experience is distinct from and subsequent to the experience of the new birth (Acts 8:12–17; 10:44–46; 11:14–16; 15:7–9). With the baptism in the Holy Spirit come such experiences as an overflowing fullness of the Spirit (John 7:37–39; Acts 4:8), a deepened reverence for God (Acts 2:43; Hebrews 12:28), an intensified consecration to God and dedication to His work (Acts 2:42), and a more active love for Christ, for His Word, and for the lost (Mark 16:20).

9. The Initial Physical Evidence of the Baptism in the Holy Spirit

The baptism of believers in the Holy Spirit is witnessed by the initial physical sign of speaking with other tongues as the Spirit of God gives them utterance (Acts 2:4). The speaking in tongues in this instance is the same in essence as the gift of tongues (1 Corinthians 12:4–10, 28), but different in purpose and use.

10. Sanctification

Sanctification is an act of separation from that which is evil, and of dedication unto God (Romans 12:1–2; 1 Thessalonians 5:23; Hebrews 13:12). Scriptures teach a life of “holiness without which no man shall see the Lord” (Hebrews 12:14). By the power of the Holy Spirit, we are able to obey the command: “Be ye holy, for I am holy” (1 Peter 1:15–16).

Sanctification is realized in the believer by recognizing his identification with Christ in His death and resurrection, and by faith reckoning daily upon the fact of that union, and by offering every faculty continually to the dominion of the Holy Spirit (Romans 6:1–11,13; 8:1–2,13; Galatians 2:20; Philippians 2:12–13; 1 Peter 1:5).

11. The Church and Its Mission

The Church is the body of Christ, the habitation of God through the Spirit, with divine appointments for the fulfillment of her Great Commission. Each believer, born of the Spirit, is an integral part of the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven (Ephesians 1:22–23; 2:22; Hebrews 12:23).

Since God's purpose concerning man is to seek and to save that which is lost, to be worshipped by man, to build a body of believers in the image of His Son, and to demonstrate His love and compassion for all the world, the priority reason for being of the Assemblies of God as part of the Church is:

- a. To be an agency of God for evangelizing the world (Acts 1:8; Matthew 28:19–20; Mark 16:15–16).
- b. To be a corporate body in which man may worship God (1 Corinthians 12:13).
- c. To be a channel of God's purpose to build a body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son (Ephesians 4:11–16; 1 Corinthians 12:28; 14:12).
- d. To be a people who demonstrate God's love and compassion for all the world (Psalm 112:9; Galatians 2:10; 6:10; James 1:27).

The Assemblies of God exists expressly to give continuing emphasis to this reason for being in the New Testament apostolic pattern by teaching and encouraging believers to be baptized in the Holy Spirit. This experience:

- a. Enables them to evangelize in the power of the Spirit with accompanying supernatural signs (Mark 16:15–20; Acts 4:29–31; Hebrews 2:3–4).
- b. Adds a necessary dimension to a worshipful relationship with God (1 Corinthians 2:10–16; 1 Corinthians 12–14).
- c. Enables them to respond to the full working of the Holy Spirit in expression of fruit and gifts and ministries as in New Testament times for the edifying of the body of Christ and care for the poor and needy of the world (Galatians 5:22–26; Matthew 25:37–40; Galatians 6:10; 1 Corinthians 14:12; Ephesians 4:11–12; 1 Corinthians 12:28; Colossians 1:29).

12. The Ministry

A divinely called and scripturally ordained ministry has been provided by our Lord for the fourfold purpose of leading the Church in: (1) evangelization of the world (Mark 16:15–20), (2) worship of God (John 4:23–24), (3) building a Body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son (Ephesians 4:11,16), and (4) meeting human need with ministries of love and compassion (Psalm 112:9; Galatians 2:10; 6:10; James 1:27).

13. Divine Healing

Divine healing is an integral part of the gospel. Deliverance from sickness is provided for in the Atonement and is the privilege of all believers (Isaiah 53:4–5; Matthew 8:16–17; James 5:14–16).

14. The Blessed Hope

The resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in Christ and their translation together with those who are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord is the imminent and blessed hope of the Church (1 Thessalonians 4:16–17; Romans 8:23; Titus 2:13; 1 Corinthians 15:51–52).

15. The Millennial Reign of Christ

The second coming of Christ includes the rapture of the saints, which is our blessed hope, followed by the visible return of Christ with His saints to reign on the earth for one thousand years (Zechariah 14:5; Matthew 24:27, 30; Revelation 1:7; 19:11–14; 20:1–6). This millennial reign will bring the salvation of national Israel (Ezekiel 37:21–22; Zephaniah 3:19–20; Romans 11:26–27) and the establishment of universal peace (Isaiah 11:6–9; Psalm 72:3–8; Micah 4:3–4).

16. The Final Judgment

There will be a final judgment in which the wicked dead will be raised and judged according to their works. Whosoever is not found written in the Book of Life, together with the devil and his angels, the beast and the false prophet, will be consigned to everlasting punishment in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death (Matthew 25:46; Mark 9:43–48; Revelation 19:20; 20:11–15; 21:8)

17. The New Heavens and the New Earth

“We, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness” (2 Peter 3:13; Revelation 21–22).

18. Statement on Marriage, Gender and Sexuality

a. We believe that God wonderfully and immutably creates each person as male or female. These two distinct, complementary genders together reflect the image and nature of God. (Genesis 1:26-27.) Rejection of one’s biological sex is rejection of the image of God within that person. We believe that the term “marriage” has only one meaning: the uniting of one man and one woman in a single, exclusive union, as delineated in scripture. (Genesis 2:18- 25.) We believe that God intends sexual intimacy to occur only between a man and a woman who are married to each other. (1 Corinthians 6:18; 7:2-5; Hebrews 13:4.) We believe that God has commanded that no intimate sexual activity be engaged in outside of marriage between man and a woman.

b. We believe that any form of sexual immorality (including adultery, fornication, homosexual behavior, bisexual conduct, bestiality, incest, and use of pornography) is sinful and offensive to God. (Matthew 15:18-20; 1 Corinthians 6:9-10.)

c. We believe that in order to preserve the function and integrity of church as the local Body of Christ, and to provide a biblical role model to its members, and the community, it is imperative that all persons employed by Bluff View Church in any capacity, or who serve as volunteers, agree to and abide by this his statement of Marriage, Gender and Sexuality. (Matthew 5:6; Philippians 2:14-16; 1 Thessalonians 5:22.)

d. We believe that God offers redemption and restoration to all who confess and forsake their sin, seeking His mercy and forgiveness through Jesus Christ. (Acts 3:19-21; Romans 10:9-19; 1 Corinthians 6:9-11.)

e. We believe that every person must be afforded compassion, love, kindness, respect, and dignity. (Mark 12:28-31; Luke 6:31.) Hatful and harassing behavior or attitudes directed toward any individual are to be repudiated and are not in accord with Scripture nor the doctrines of the church.

19. Statement on the Sanctity of Life

a. We are created in the image of God and human life is sacred to God. He alone is the creator of all things including human life. As an assembly of the body of Christ, we believe that life is the most basic gift from a loving God, a gift over which we have stewardship but not absolute dominion. As stewards, we have a moral obligation to care for our own life and health and to seek such care from others and we recognize that we are not morally obligated to use all available medical procedures in every set of circumstances.

b. As a responsible steward of life, one must never directly intend to cause one’s own death or the death of an innocent victim, by action or omission. All are called to give witness of Jesus Christ at the side of the sick person to become a “healing community” in order to actualize concretely the desire of Jesus, beginning with the most weak and vulnerable, all may be one flesh. (Genesis 1:27, Psalm 139:13-17, Luke 10:30-37)

ARTICLE VI. MEETINGS

Section 1. Order of Business

In order to expedite the work of the church business meetings and the Official Board meetings and to avoid confusion in deliberations, all meetings shall be governed by the accepted rules of parliamentary procedure in keeping with the spirit of Christian love and fellowship under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. The parliamentary authority shall be Robert's Rules of Order (the current edition), and it shall apply when it is not inconsistent with the Bylaws or any special rules of order that this church may adopt in the future.

Section 2. Membership Meeting

a. Annual: The annual meeting of the members of this corporation shall be held no later than the 31st day of March in each year. Notice of said meeting shall be provided in printed or electronic format and made available to the voting membership not less than fourteen (14) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of said annual meeting.

b. Special: Special meetings of the members of this corporation may be called from time to time at the discretion of the pastor, the Board of Directors, or by petition listing 30 percent of the active voting members of this church. Notice of all special meetings shall be given by the secretary (officer on the Board of Directors) and shall state the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is to be called. Notice of said meeting shall be provided in printed or electronic format and made available to the voting membership not less than fourteen(14) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of said business meeting. No other business shall be considered at any special meeting other than that described in said notice. Notice of all special meetings shall also be given in writing or e-notification to the district/network whenever the purpose of the meeting pertains to division, conflict, or pastoral leadership. When feasible, a district/network official or executive officer shall also chair any such meeting. Notice of all special meetings shall also be given in writing or e- notification to the district/network office. When feasible, a district/network official shall also chair any meeting called by petition of the members as stated above if the stated purpose is related to division, conflict, or pastoral leadership.

c. Voting Rights: Each voting member shall be entitled to one vote. Voting by proxy or absentee ballot shall not be allowed. Voting rights shall be limited to those items specified in these Bylaws, or matters referred by the Board to the members for vote.

d. Quorum: At least 30 percent of the active voting membership shall be present to constitute a quorum.

e. Adoption: Any action taken by the voting membership requires a majority vote at a meeting in which a quorum is present unless stated otherwise in the Articles of Incorporation, Constitution, or Bylaws.

Section 3. Board of Directors

a. Regular: The Official Board of this corporation shall hold regular monthly meetings (exceptions shall be mutually agreed upon by a majority of the directors because of holidays, schedules, etc.) and such special meetings as they shall deem necessary for the competent management of the affairs of the corporation.

b. Special: Special meetings may be called as needed by the lead pastor or a majority of the directors, providing at least one day's notice to all directors. This period may be shortened by mutual consent. Meetings may be conducted in person or by conference call, video, or other electronic means, within the parameters of Wisconsin State nonprofit corporate law. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting need be specified.

c. Quorum: One-half (50%) of the members of the Official Board shall constitute a quorum.

d. Voting: Any action taken by the Official Board requires a (majority, vote at a meeting in which a quorum is present unless stated otherwise in the Articles of Incorporation, Constitution, or Bylaws.

e. Notice and Consent: The Board of Directors shall not meet without notification to the pastor and with his or her consent. The pastor shall preside at all meetings unless he or she appoints one of the other corporate officers or a staff pastor to act on his or her behalf

ARTICLE VII. MEMBERSHIP

Membership in this church shall be open to all those who give evidence of their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and who voluntarily subscribe to its tenets of faith and agree to be governed by its Bylaws as herein set forth.

Section 1: Membership Responsibilities

a. In membership, we recognize that the Holy Spirit has joined us together to be the Body of Christ. Membership is neither exclusive in nature nor primarily activity centered. It is a relationship, which requires voluntary interdependence and subjection for mutual encouragement and edification, enabling the members to see and hope for Christ in one another. Members are in subjection to one another and accept new challenges and responsibilities in an effort toward personal growth and the enrichment of the body as a whole. In light of the goals of this church, the individual is given opportunity and encouraged to make specific commitment to ministry.

b. To adhere fully to the directives of the Membership Covenant.

c. Pray regularly for the church and its leadership and ministries (Ephesians 6:18; 2 Thessalonians 1:11–12)

d. Contribute to the life and health of the church by regularly attending services (in person or remotely), serving in ministries, and assisting in outreach efforts (Acts 1:8; Romans 12:3– 8; Hebrews 10:24–25; 1 Peter 4:10)

e. Support the church financially through tithes and offerings (1 Corinthians 16:2; 2 Corinthians 9:6– 15)

f. Participate in membership meetings to receive reports, vote on matters placed before the membership, and ratify or elect qualified individuals to serve (Acts 6:1–7).

g. Protect the unity of the church by resolving disagreements, misunderstandings, and conflicts as outlined in the Scriptures (Mathew 18:15–17; 1 Corinthians 1:10).

h. Familiarize themselves with the church's spiritual vision, mission, values, Bylaws, policies, and procedures (Isaiah 30:8; Habakkuk 2:2).

i. Fulfill other responsibilities specifically reserved for members in the Bylaws (Ecclesiastes 4:9–12).

Section 2. Active Voting Members

All persons who qualify for membership shall constitute the legal voting membership of the church, providing they are living and eighteen (18) years of age or over, who are maintaining a consistent Christian testimony, who are in agreement with our tenets of faith, and who regularly attend (as determined by church board and/or policy) and financially support the church. Note: All pastoral staff and their spouses automatically receive voting member status.

Section 3. Membership Process

Those seeking membership in this church shall make application by filling out an application for membership, interview with the pastor or a designated pastoral staff member, and approval by the Board of Directors. All details of such membership processes shall be part of the church policy, process, or operational manual, as approved by the Official Board.

Section 4. Honorary Members/Nonactive Members

Honorary members shall consist of those members who have entered the ministry as Assemblies of God officials, pastors, evangelists, missionaries, religious educators, or those serving in the armed services, making it impossible to serve as active members. Honorary membership recognition shall continue as long as the member requests it and maintains a consistent Christian life, remains sound in doctrine, and maintains a cooperative attitude toward the home church. Voting privilege may be granted at the discretion of the Official Board.

Section 5. Review of Membership

The membership roster shall be reviewed sixty (60) days prior to the annual business meeting. The pastor and the Board of Directors, working together, shall be authorized to revise the membership roll of the church annually, and to remove from the list of active members all names of those who have deceased during the year, together with the names of those who may have been removed from membership as noted in the following provisions.

Section 6. Transfer of Membership

Members in good standing, who may wish to sever their relationship with the church, or who may desire to be transferred to some other congregation, may apply to the secretary with a letter, or email which shall be granted on the approval of the pastor and the Board of Directors. Said letter is to be signed by the pastor of the church.

Section 7. Inactive Status/Expulsion/Loss of Membership

Members who shall, without good cause, absent themselves from the services of this church for three (3) consecutive months or more or who may be out of harmony with its teachings or who shall be under charges of misconduct or who may have fallen away from the faith, shall by implementation of the pastor and Official Board, and by action so stated in the minutes, be automatically placed on inactive membership status (in other words, become a nonvoting member) and shall lose any legal standing associated with membership until such time as the affected member's case has become final either by the member's own inaction, or if a review is initiated (by the member), after the case has been fully reviewed by the Official Board. Examples of the above reasons for being placed on inactive status include, but are not limited, to the following: (1) departure from the tenets of faith as delineated in Article V; (2) living a sinful life and refusing to change (Galatians 5:19–21; Ephesians 5:3–7; 2 Thessalonians 3:6,10); and (3) engaging in the disruption of fellowship by sowing discord among the brethren; showing a noncooperative attitude, persisting in gossip; or creating trouble in general (Proverbs 6:19; Romans 2:1–3; James 2:2–12).

a. Notice of Inactive Status: Notice of inactive status and the reasons therefore shall be sent via mail or email to the affected member's last known address as noted in the church files or by electronic means. It shall be each member's responsibility to keep the church secretary notified of his or her current address and/or email address. Receipt of said notice shall be presumed on the third day following the letter being posted or email sent.

b. Review: Membership in this church is an ecclesiastical matter and is subject to the biblical mandates reflected in this document. An individual placed on inactive status or removed from membership may ask for a review and be granted the opportunity to further explain within seven days of notification their reasons for inactivity or any other reason given by the Board of Directors for inactive status or removal from the membership roster. Such information shall be reviewed by the Board of Directors to render their decision in the matter, and such decision shall be final, without the right of appeal. The affected member has no right to legal action or the presence of an attorney during any review of membership.

c. Removal: If reinstatement is not granted, the affected person shall immediately be removed from membership in this church and have no further right to appeal or redress in this church, the civil courts, or elsewhere.

ARTICLE VIII. CORPORATE MANAGEMENT

Section 1. Governance

Under the headship of Christ (Ephesians 1:22; Colossians 1:18), the leading of the Holy Spirit, the authority of Scripture (2 Timothy 3:16–17), and the directives of these bylaws, this church shall be autonomous and self-governing. The active membership shall be the final decision-making body in matters of governance except when certain powers, responsibilities, and doctrinal positions have been so delegated or entrusted to others through the Articles of Incorporation, Constitution, or Bylaws of this church, or the governing documents of The General Council of the Assemblies of God or the district/network.

Section 2. Leadership Team

The Leadership Team of this church consists of the lead pastor, associate pastoral staff, support team, corporate officers, Board of Directors, and leaders from other ministry teams as may be implemented and active. The Leadership Team, under the direction of the lead pastor, shall establish and keep current the purposes, core values, vision, and mission of the church. The Board of Directors may establish organizational, operational, or policy manuals as needed to provide guidance to the Leadership Team in establishing processes for accomplishing the mission of the church.

Section 3. Board of Directors

a. This church shall be governed by one Board of Directors which shall be known hereafter as the Board.

b. Composition : The Board shall consist of at minimum the officers (or as required by state law), with a minimum of three and maximum of seven, not including the president. The Board will consist of a mixture of Elders and Deacons. The number of board members will be determined, from time to time, by the Board as the church grows, with a minimum of one Elder and two Deacons.

c. The Board will have charge of the property, interests, business, and affairs of the church, with full power and authority to manage and conduct the same in accordance with this Constitution and Bylaws.

d. Director's term of service shall not overlap more than one immediate family member, ensuring that there are three (3) or more unrelated Board Directors serving on the Board or church staff.

e. No paid staff members, other than the Lead pastor, may serve on the church board.

f. Board member, must be a member of the church in good standing, attend services regularly and tithe to the church body.

g. Qualifications : The Board shall be persons (male or female at birth, married or single) of mature Christian experience and knowledge, who shall be expected to meet the requirements as set forth in Acts 6 and 1 Timothy 3. They shall be at least twenty-one (21) years old, and with the exception of the lead pastor, have been voting members of this church at least one (1) year (twelve months). Board Members are expected to adhere to biblical standards of leadership. They are also expected to believe in and consistently practice tithing to the local church.

1. Elders:

a. Qualifications :

The elders will be men/women of mature spiritual development, who, by life and ministry are able to lead and shepherd the church. They will meet the Scriptural qualifications: 1 Timothy 3:2-7, Titus 1:6-9, 1Peter 5:2-3

b. Ministry: The elders will be spiritual leaders in all matters pertaining to the life of the whole church. The elders will be in close relationship with the church body by being sensitive to their needs and maintaining open communication.

c. Responsibility: To act in unity and care for the development of the spiritual life of the church body such as:

- (1) Provide a prayer shield for the pastoral team and local church.
- (2) Pray for the sick, plead for the flock of God under their care.
- (3) Counsel and mediate disputes among the brethren.
- (4) Lead by example.

2. Deacons:

a. Qualifications:

The deacons will be men/women of “honest report, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom.” And will meet scriptural qualifications of: Acts 6:3, 1 Timothy 3:8-13.

b. Ministry: The deacons will care for all the physical plant necessary for the spiritual body of believers.

c. The Board chaired by the lead pastor of the church will look to the Lord to select men/women of God to fill the positions of Elders and Deacons. The following steps will be taken in arriving at the selection of a Board member.

(1) Prayer

(2) Recognition by the Board of God's call on his /her life.

(3) Personal communication with the Board.

(4) Unanimous approval by the Board.

(5) The Board will submit a letter to the church indicating their choice. Any active member of the church will have fifteen (15) days to indicate in writing to the Board any reason(s) they feel would disqualify said appointee. If the Board deems reason(s) valid in light of biblical concepts, the appointment will be rescinded.

(6) After the fifteen (15) day period, presentation to the church and public instillation will take place.

d. Election/Terms of Office: Policy and procedures shall be developed and implemented by the Board to alternate the director selection process ~~is~~ to prevent reelection of all board members at the same time. A board member (not lead pastor) shall serve no more than five (5) years followed by a required minimum one (1) year period prior to reelection to the Board.

e. By design, a healthy board trains up others to serve when vacancies arise. There shall be a minimum of one Elder and one Deacon assigned to serve as a board member in training. These trainees do not have voting privileges on the Board but do participate in all Board meetings. When a vacancy occurs, they are potential candidates. They have the same term limits as set for Elders and Deacons.

f. Duties:

(1) The internal business affairs of this corporation shall be managed by its Board. Individual directors (board members), with the exception of the pastor, may also be referred to as Deacons or Elders.

(2) The Board shall be authorized to transact business for this church between annual membership meetings, except in those matters which require approval by the voting membership.

(3) The Board shall be specifically responsible for overseeing the business activities of this corporation, including but not limited to the entering into of contracts, owning, holding in trust, using, selling, conveying, mortgaging, leasing, or otherwise acquiring or disposing of such property (both real and chattel) as may be needed for the prosecution of its work and consistent with Article XI of these Bylaws. They shall serve as trustees of the corporation and be responsible for maintenance of church buildings and equipment.

(4) The Board shall act in an advisory capacity with the pastor in all matters pertaining to the church in its spiritual life. They may assist the pastor in ministry as needed or requested and as their own gifts and abilities allow. They may set policies and determine the means to facilitate ministry and fulfill the church's mission, vision, purposes, and values.

(5) Conflicts of Interest: Board members shall not be members of the paid pastoral staff. However, consideration may be given to credentialed Assemblies of God ministers who are also members of the church and not paid staff. Directors' term of service shall not overlap more than one immediate family member, ensuring that there are three (3) or more unrelated Board Directors serving on the Board or church staff. Whenever a director or officer has a financial or personal interest in any matter coming before the Board, the affected person shall (a) fully disclose the nature of the interest and (b) withdraw from discussion, lobbying, and voting on the matter. An transaction or vote involving a potential conflict of interest shall be approved only when a majority of disinterested directors determine that it is in the best interest of the corporation to do so. The minutes of meetings at which such votes are taken shall record such disclosure, abstention, and rationale for approval.

(6) The Board shall consider applications for church membership and make decisions with respect to receiving applicants into church membership.

(7) The Board is authorized to appoint such teams or committees as may be necessary for accomplishing the mission of the church. All teams or committees so appointed shall be amenable to and work under the supervision of the Board and pastor.

(8) To facilitate the ministry and mission of the church, the Board may establish such organizational, operational, or policy manuals as may be necessary, and may amend or edit such manuals at their discretion.

a. Vacancy: In the event a vacancy occurs on the Board, they shall be empowered to appoint a successor to fill the unexpired term unless such vacancy occurs within thirty (30) days of the next annual or special business meeting of the voting members of the church.

b. Removal: With the exception of the pastor, any member of the Board (including officers) may be removed with or without cause after prayerful deliberation by a two-thirds vote of those members of the Board constituting a quorum at any meeting of the Board. Any director so removed shall have no right to appeal and a person may be appointed to replace the removed director as outlined in Bylaws Article VIII, Section 3.

Section 4. Officers

a. Officers of this corporation shall consist of a president (lead pastor), a vice president, a secretary, and a treasurer. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person except the offices of the president and the secretary. The pastor shall hold only one corporate office.

b. All officers shall be members of the Board of Directors.

Section 5. Duties of the Lead Pastor/Corporate President

- a. The pastor shall be considered as the spiritual overseer of the church, shall provide vision, and shall facilitate the mission of the church. The lead pastor shall not be amenable to the Board in these matters, although he or she is amenable to the district/network and The General Council of the Assemblies of God. The pastor shall, however, listen to advice given from the Board relying on the Holy Spirit for guidance. In cases where there appears to be a conflict between the Board and lead pastor, either the Board or the lead pastor may appeal to the district/network for counsel, mediation, or intervention as may be specified in the current district/network Bylaws or policies.
- b. The lead pastor shall be the president of this corporation and shall act as chairman of all the business meetings of the church and of the Board.
- c. The lead pastor may be an ex officio member of all committees and departments.
- d. The lead pastor shall be authorized to perform any functions that may be customary for the offices that he or she holds or as may be directed by the church or the Board.
- e. The lead pastor shall provide for all the services of the church and shall give oversight to all events. No person shall be invited to speak or preach in the church without the lead pastor's approval.

Section 6. The Lead Pastor

- a. Qualifications: The pastoral candidate shall be a credentialed minister, currently a member in good standing with The General Council of the Assemblies of God, and shall comply with the scriptural and Assemblies of God standards for the ministry (1 Timothy 3:2–7; Titus 1:6–9; 1 Peter 5:2–3).
- b. Election: Following an affirmative vote of the Pastoral Selection Committee to offer an official call to one candidate for the office of lead pastor, a special business meeting shall be called for the purpose of a vote by the membership on said pastoral candidate. A two-thirds affirmative vote at a meeting with a quorum present and which is called for the purpose of electing a pastor shall be required for election.
- c. Term of Office: The tenure of office for the pastor shall be indefinite duration or until removed, with annual review and conversation regarding the pastor's call, health, and performance between the pastor and Board.
- d. Vacancy: In the event of a vacancy in the pastorate, a pastor shall be selected in the following manner:
 - (1) The Board shall immediately contact the district/network for counsel and recommendations as to appropriate procedures and potential candidates. The church shall follow guidelines for selecting a pastor as may be published or recommended by the district/network. They shall coordinate with and be amenable to the district/network executive officers' recommendations regarding an interim pastor (who should agree not to be considered as a candidate).
 - (2) The Board of the church will look to the Lord to select men/women of God to fill the position of Lead Pastor.

- (3) The following steps will be taken in arriving at the selection of the new pastor.
 - a. Prayer.
 - b. If in good standing the Lead Pastor will help with the candidate search and selection.
 - c. If no suitable candidate is found, a third-party firm will be hired to do the search. This firm must be familiar with church dynamics and pastoral hiring and how the right leader fits uniquely with each church body.
- (4) Unanimous approval of the Board is required for the new pastor.
- (5) The Board will then submit the candidate for approval to the church membership.
- (6) Two-Thirds approval is needed by the church members, after which public instillation will take place.
- (7) Candidates who are not credentialed with The General Council of the Assemblies of God must be cleared with the district/network executive officers with a reasonable assurance that the person will qualify for credentials and go through the process for receiving such.
- (8) One candidate shall be selected from those considered by at least a majority vote of the Pastoral Search Committee or Board and asked to present his or her ministry to the congregation.
- (9) Said candidate shall be elected as noted in Section 6, paragraph b of this Article.

e. Resignation: It is recommended that the pastor give thirty (30) days or more notice of intent to resign. Resignations shall be submitted in writing to the Board, addressed to the corporate secretary. The letter of resignation should stipulate an intended effective date. The Board should take official action to receive and accept a letter of resignation, and in so doing should also confirm the effective date, along with any regrets, severance, compensation, details, or duties up to and/or beyond the effective date.

f. Removal:

- (1) Cause: Pastors may be removed for cause or by action of the voting membership.
- (2) Investigation: In the event charges based on grounds for cause are brought against the pastor, a preliminary investigation shall be conducted by the Board
- (3) Notice: If such charges indicate possible violations of doctrinal, sexual, moral, or ethical standards for an Assemblies of God minister, the board shall immediately notify the district/network executive officers who shall conduct an investigation and determine if the pastor is able to continue in office or should face disciplinary charges and notify the Board of such action in either case. If there does not appear to be immediate cause to contact the district/network, the Board shall determine the facts as best they can, recording the same. If allegations supporting the complaint are determined groundless, it shall be dismissed. In the event that facts supporting the complaint have some merit, the Board shall consult with the district/network for counsel, mediation, or intervention. A preliminary hearing shall then be conducted before the Board with a designated representative from the district/network presiding as chairperson. If the preliminary hearing reveals substantive issues and such issues could affect the minister's credentials, it becomes the responsibility of the district/network to further investigate, discipline, or resolve. Notice of the outcome of said investigation shall be made to the Board and may be conveyed to the church if circumstances so warrant, at the district/network executive officers' discretion.

(4) Dismissal: If the matters affecting the pastor's ability to lead are not based upon moral or ethical charges, but leadership or philosophical issues, the Board may ask for the lead pastor's resignation following a two-thirds majority vote of no confidence from the Board following consultation with the district/network. In the event the lead pastor does not resign as requested and if there is no other apparent solution, the matter shall be referred to a hearing within fourteen (14) days before the active voting members of this church. Said meeting shall be chaired by a representative from the district/network. A two-thirds vote at a duly called meeting in which a quorum is present shall be required to dismiss a pastor and sustain the action of the Board. Only those members actually present shall be entitled to cast a vote.

Section 7. Ministerial Staff/Associates (Pastors)

a. Qualifications: Qualifications are the same as those required of the lead pastor listed in Article VIII, Section 6, of these Bylaws.

b. Selection: All ministerial staff/associate pastor(s) shall be chosen by the pastor and ratified by the Board.

c. Term of Office/Removal: Any ministerial staff/associate pastor(s) may be removed by the pastor at will. No ratification by the Board is necessary, nor does the ministerial staff/associate pastor(s) have any appeal.

d. Resignation: Shall be governed in the same manner as that listed in Article VIII, Section 6 of these Bylaws governing resignation of the lead pastor.

e. Membership: As noted in Article VII, Section 2 of these Bylaws, ministerial staff/associate pastor(s) are automatically voting members of the church.

Section 8. The Vice President

a. Election: The vice president of the corporation shall be selected annually by consensus from among the members of the Board during the first board meeting following the annual business meeting. His or her term of office shall be for one year.

b. Duties:

The vice president, subject to this or any other provisions in these Bylaws, and any other corporate officer shall act in all business matters pertaining to the corporation and business affairs of the church in the absence of the president.

The vice president shall never act as the spiritual leader of this church even in the president's absence.

The vice president shall perform any other functions as may be customary or as may be directed by the church or the Board.

c. Removal: The vice president may be removed from office pursuant to the process delineated in Article VIII, Section 3 of these Bylaws.

Section 9. The Corporate Secretary

a. Election: The manner in which the corporate secretary is elected and his or her term of office shall be as delineated in Article VIII, Section 3 of these Bylaws.

b. Duties:

The corporate secretary's duties shall include keeping a true and accurate record of all business meetings of the church and the Board. The corporate secretary may personally fulfill the duties or delegate as agreed to by the Board.

The corporate secretary shall be custodian of all legal documents and shall be authorized to sign all official and legal documents, to conduct church correspondence where required, and to perform any other functions as are customary or as may be directed by the church or Board.

c. Removal: The secretary may be removed from office pursuant to the process delineated in Article VIII, Section 3 of these Bylaws.

Section 10. The Treasurer

a. Election: The manner in which the treasurer is elected and his or her term of office shall be as delineated in Article VIII, Section 3 of these Bylaws.

b. Duties:

The treasurer's duties shall include being the overseer and custodian of all church funds which shall be deposited into bank accounts, following basic policies and principles of accounting for churches/nonprofits as designated by the Board. These accounting policies shall ensure compliance with IRS regulations governing nonprofit corporations which forbid operations for the benefit of private interests or inurement, such as the directors, officers, or other designated individuals.

The treasurer shall be authorized to sign checks or other legal monetary documents and make disposition of funds as may be required for the accurate conduct of church business under the supervision of the Board and consistent with this or any other provision of these Bylaws. The treasurer shall give a financial report to the Board at its monthly meeting and to the church at its annual meeting. The treasurer shall perform any other functions that may be customary or as may be directed by the church or the Board. All the clerical duties of the treasurer may be delegated to others following consultation and consensus by the Board.

c. Removal: The treasurer may be removed from office pursuant to the process delineated in Article VIII, Section 3 of these Bylaws.

ARTICLE IX. DEPARTMENTS, TEAMS, AND COMMITTEES

The Board shall appoint such departments, teams, and committees as is necessary to accomplish the mission of the church and manage its affairs. All such entities shall operate under the supervision of and be amenable to the Board. Additional guidance may be provided in organizational, operational, or policy manuals at the discretion of and with the oversight of the Board.

ARTICLE X. COMPENSATION/REMUNERATION

The lead pastor and other persons who are supported in whole or part by this church shall have such compensation reviewed by the Board at least thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of this church's fiscal year.

ARTICLE XI. PROPERTY AND CONTRACTS

All property, real or chattel, shall be held in the name of this corporation or the Wisconsin and Northern Michigan of the Assemblies of God.

Section 1. Real Property

No real property of this church shall be purchased, sold, leased, mortgaged (does not apply to refinancing an existing mortgage or extension of lines of credit), or otherwise alienated without same having been authorized by at least a 60 percent vote of those active voting members present and voting at any annual or special meeting called for such purpose except those real property transactions amounting to less than an aggregate of $25,000 or not to exceed 25 percent of the church annual operational budget.

Section 2. Personal Property

The Board shall have authority for all purchases and sale of personal property on behalf of the church in amounts up to an aggregate of $25,000 or 25 percent of the church annual operational budget. For situations involving larger transactions, authorization shall be by at least a 60 percent vote of those active voting members present at any annual or special meeting called for such purpose.

Section 3. Contracts

The Board shall have authority to negotiate and sign all contracts on behalf of this church and may authorize the president or other directors or officers to do so in writing.

ARTICLE XII. DISSOLUTION

If the members of this assembly should vote to disaffiliate from the Assemblies of God for doctrinal or any other reasons, then all of the real property of such assembly will remain with the church corporation. A two-thirds vote of members of the assembly is required for disaffiliation.

In the event that this corporation ceases to function its assets shall be distributed to the Wisconsin and Northern Michigan of the Assemblies of God, provided it qualifies at such time for exemption as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, or a successor statute. In the event that the Wisconsin and Northern Michigan does not so qualify, the assets of this corporation shall be distributed to The General Council of the Assemblies of God, provided it so qualifies as delineated above.

ARTICLE XIII. RECORDS

The church shall, pursuant to the provisions of state law, maintain an open records policy for members. However, members' right to access such records shall not include records containing personal information of a private nature about any specific individual. Such limitations include, but may not be limited to, minutes, ministerial, credential, and personnel files, identity numbers, disciplinary records, individual giving, or compensation records.

ARTICLE XIV. INDEMNIFICATION

The corporation has the power to indemnify (including the power to advance expenses to) its directors, officers, employees, and agents made a party to a legal proceeding, as defined in local or state laws. However, no such indemnity shall indemnify any such director, officer, employee, or agent from or on account of: (1) acts or omissions of such director, officer, employee, or agent finally adjudged to be intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; or (2) any transaction with respect to which it was finally adjudged that such director, officer, employee, or agent personally received a benefit in money, property, or services to which such person was not legally entitled.

ARTICLE XV. EMERGENCY POWERS

Section 1. Definition

The members of this church recognize that times of national or local emergency may occur, making it impossible to fulfill all of the requirements of these Bylaws or the church's Articles of Incorporation. Times of national, state, or local emergency may be called by the president of the United States or the governor of Wisconsin or the local, regional, county, or city government due to natural disaster (earthquake, tidal wave, volcano, flood, storm, etc.), pandemic, war, civil unrest, or any seen or unseen emergency of significance.

Section 2. Circumstances

In the event of any emergency as described in Section 1 above, making it impossible to conduct business or services as usual for this church, including any board or membership business meetings, the Board, or remaining available members of the Board, shall be empowered to act as fiduciaries of this church to ensure the continuation of services and business in the most feasible, safe, legal, and prudent manner, as good stewards holding to biblical values as outlined in these Bylaws.

Section 3. Process Steps

- a. Upon such an emergency declaration, making it impossible to conduct normal business or services as usual, and pursuant to applicable emergency powers or bylaws of Wisconsin regarding emergency bylaws, the remaining active Board of Directors shall enact special emergency bylaws and powers as needed to accommodate such an emergency.
- b. By majority vote of the remaining Board, they shall be granted emergency power to draft and enact any emergency bylaw provision pursuant to the aforementioned state laws. These emergency bylaws may bypass any and all of the current church bylaws as needed in order to comply with all federal and state requirements and/or regulations pertaining to meetings or other accompanying standard operating procedure business of the church such as elections and meetings of any kind.
- a. These emergency bylaws and powers will empower the Board and members of this church to act in any legal, biblical, reasonable and prudent manner they deem necessary to conduct such business that may conflict with current church bylaw provisions or requirements, including, but not limited to normal business operations, providing for congregational services and community care, the suspension of an annual business meeting and/or other regular business until such a time as the current emergency is resolved and emergency measures are lifted.
- b. Once the emergency crisis is declared over by a declaration of the government and/or the church Board (after consulting with church legal counsel if possible), then standard operating procedures for this church's business and compliance with regular church bylaws and operations will resume.

Article XVI. AMENDMENTS

Amendments to these Bylaws may be made at any annual or special meeting of the voting members of this church, provided notice of proposed amendments in written or electronic format has been made available to the membership no less than three (3) weeks prior to consideration. Such proposed amendments shall be adopted upon receiving two thirds vote of legal ballots cast by active members present. Only those members present and whose names appear on the active membership roster shall have the right to cast a vote. Absentee ballots or voting by proxy shall not be accepted.
